

Sunday 30th September
18th Sunday after Trinity

Worship

We invite all who wish to receive the bread and the wine to come forward to the communion rail. If instead you wish to receive God's blessing, please come to the communion rail bringing your red service book with you. If you prefer to remain in your pew that is just fine. Anyone who is less mobile is invited to receive communion in their pew. If you would appreciate this please speak to one of the churchwardens or vergers before the service

Collect

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us your gift of faith that, forsaking what lies behind and reaching out to that which is before, we may run the way of your commandments and win the crown of everlasting joy; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Post Communion

We praise and thank you, O Christ, for this sacred feast: for here we receive you, here the memory of your passion is renewed, here our minds are filled with grace, and here a pledge of future glory is given, when we shall feast at that table where you reign with all your saints for ever

100 days of peace and hope

On 4th August 1918 King George V called a National Day of Prayer.

100 days later, the war ended.

From 4th August 2018 churches of all denominations are participating in 100 days of prayer ending on 11th November.

For more information go to www.remembrance100.co.uk

where you will find a series of articles prayers, practical suggestions and access to daily emails. The prayers for each week are also displayed on our notice board

Offertory

If you are a visitor to this church you may place your gift in the collection in the usual way.

If you would like our Treasurer, Richard Howarth, to reclaim any tax through Gift Aid please use the envelopes provided on your pew. Place your gift in the envelope, complete the form and give it in during collection.

If you wish to give regularly you may also fill out a form for a monthly standing order, located at the back of church. If so please take one away with you and return it completed or speak to Richard. Cards are available to place in the collection if you wish to indicate you have given in this way.

Gift Aid and Standing Orders are invaluable in maintaining a steady income.

Forms are now accessible on our website

www.brindlestjames.co.uk

KIT Cards

(Keep In Touch)

A selection of cards are being sent out to support any young people aged from 11 up to 24 years known to our church family.

A number were sent to those taking exams recently offering encouragement and phone numbers if anyone wanted to talk and have been well received.

Other circumstances might include waiting for exam results, considering the exciting but possibly daunting options of further education, leaving home, maybe off to uni or starting a job, taking the first steps in a chosen career or possibly having a difficult time for whatever reason.

If you know of anyone who might benefit from knowing that they are in the minds and prayers of Brindle St James please contact
Sue Boulton 01772 323481.

Appeal from the Buildings Team

The 'jobs to do' list is increasing but the number of people to carry them out is not. The team meets on Saturday mornings and if you can spare an hour or more you would be very welcome. Just turn up. For further information please speak to Ian Ramsden, vergger Paul or one of the wardens.

Soil/Grass Fertiliser/Weed and Feed

If anyone could donate any of the above it would be really appreciated as the new graveyard is in need of it. To have it collected please contact Daryl on 07831 830123

Support for Food Banks Crisis Can you help make a difference?

In 2016 the PCC approved the MU initiative to ask for a meal in a bag on behalf of Home Start and many of us have been supporting that ever since.

Further details are on the noticeboard, our website and our Facebook page.

Please consider if you can help in any way.

eg * a packet of cereal and long life milk

*a tin of baked beans and sausages

*mashed potato with meatballs and peas

If you would like to know more please have a word with Sue Boulton.

From Day 58, today, of 100 Days

Dear Grandpa, I'm shortly to set off for the Somme to meet a German, retracing the journey you took just over 100 years ago to face the Germans. I'm taking your identity tag inscribed with your name and military number, and scanty memories of what you experienced. My uncle, your youngest son, told me that your service included collecting those injured and the bodies of those killed from no man's land. The German I'm meeting is named Martin, a personal friend from a partnership between the churches we served. We discovered that we each had grandfathers who served at the Somme. Like you, his grandfather was a Christian. You share Christian names too, you being Frederick and he was Friedrich. As we meet, Martin will remember his grandfather and I'll remember you, and we'll both reflect on the folly of war. I wonder if in another 100 years, other friends may meet to remember the folly of conflicts fought in our lifetime, for we have not yet learned to live in peace. Yours in love, sorrow and hope,

Advisory notices
